

The Black Dog Institute's Writing Competition Spotlight on Seniors

Finding answers for older people and their carers is the challenge in the latest writing competition. If you are 60+ or a carer, we want to hear about your experiences of 'late onset' depression and how you managed the illness.

- $2,000 first prize; $1,000 second prize and $500 third prize for the best original essays
- Entries close 5pm, 15th January 2010
- Many of the stories will be included in a book to be published after the competition
- Winners will be announced during NSW Seniors Week, March 2010
- An application and further information can be obtained from the Institute's website:
www.blackdoginstitute.org.au/media/writingcompetition

The Black Dog Institute is a not-for-profit research, educational, community support and clinical body specialising in mood disorders.
For more information call (02) 9382 4523

BLACK DOG INSTITUTE